

Stories about people and events that are not real

Write Fiction!

Idea

Find a good idea to build your story around!

Develop the text

Think about what is going to happen and why.
What happens to the characters?
How does it start and how does it end?
How do problems get solved?

The ending

Two ways of ending a story:

- 1) A closed ending: All the loose ends get tied up.
- 2) An open ending/cliff-hanger: Gives the reader something more to think about.

Genre

Choose a genre. Is it a mystery, thriller, crime story, fantasy, short story or fairy tale?

Climax

The climax is the point of highest drama. What happens? Does the crisis/problem get solved?

Characters

Who? How many?
What are they like?
Personality - Looks

The beginning

Make the beginning interesting!

Set the scene and introduce the characters!

Three ways to start a story:

- 1) Start with description
- 2) Start with dialogue
- 3) Start with action

Narrator

Who tells the story?

First person= I.
Third-person = Is a person outside the story. A person who knows everything / a person who watches what happens through a camera.

Time, place, situation

When?
Where?
What?
